Sample Answers and Explanations

Example 1: Past Perfect Tense

Exercise: “By the time the bus arrived, I had already left the station.”

Answer Key Explanation: The past perfect is used to show an action that was completed before another past event. In this sentence, the action of leaving the station occurred before the bus arrived.

Example 2: Modal Verbs for Advice

Exercise: “You should consider taking a course in public speaking.”

Answer Key Explanation: Modal verbs like “should” express advice or recommendation. The phrase “consider taking” is a gerund phrase that follows the modal verb.

Example 3: Relative Clauses

Exercise: “The book, which I bought yesterday, is already on my shelf.”

Answer Key Explanation: A relative clause provides additional information about a noun. The clause “which I bought yesterday” modifies “the book” and is set off by commas because it is non restrictive.
